- It was noted that the road leading from Penpillick Hill to the village above the lay-by was still flooding badly and was extremely dangerous as it was on the blind junction.

- Cllr Hughes reported that a ton of tarmac had been put on Treganoon Lane the previous week during pouring rain, which had been completely ineffective.
- Cllrs were extremely annoyed that reported repairs and maintenance to the roads were not being carried out effectually and asked for it to be minuted that they considered that Lanlivery was being ignored in favour of larger parishes.
- Cllr Turner reported that the school was very concerned about speeding traffic outside the school entrance and also the fact that people were parking inconsiderately when picking up and dropping off children. Although sympathetic, members recommended that the school be advised to send a letter to parents requesting that they park further away or in the pub car park, which the landlord had kindly offered for this purpose.
